

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

- The journal of linguistics Kalbotyra (3) (Germanic and Romance Studies) will be devoted to research in various fields of Germanic and Romance synchronic and diachronic linguistics (syntax, semantics, morphology, etc.). Reviews of current books and articles, reports of conferences and their proceedings are also invited.
- Papers submitted for publication should contain the following points: aim/purpose, review of previous research on the subject, research findings/results (evaluated and validated), evidence (documented), conclusions and references. An article is not to exceed 10 pages (not more than 22,000 characters).
- The name(s) of the author(s), affiliation(s), postal and e-mail address(es), telephone/fax number should be given below the title of the article.
- A paper written in Lithuanian should be followed by a summary (not less than 600 characters) in English, German or French.
- A paper written in a foreign language (English, German, French) should be followed by a summary (not less than 600 characters) in Lithuanian.
- The summaries should bear the author's first and last names (below the title).
- Below the article, the date of its submission for publication should be indicated.
- Authors who are non-native speakers of English, German, or French should have their papers checked for errors in language and style.
- The text of the paper should be 1.5 lines-spaced, font size 12 point (Times New Roman), pages are to be numbered on the right-hand side at the top of the page. Cited forms of the language discussed should be set in italics, translation/glosses have to be provided for all the cited forms of old and rare languages. All the examples should be numbered throughout the paper and their translation into Lithuanian or another foreign language placed within single quotation marks. Footnotes are for notes only and should be numbered consecutively throughout the text. References are to be included in the text in parentheses (author's name or title of publication, comm., year of publication and, where relevant, page(s) referred to). If letters of Slavic or some other non-Latin alphabet have been used, the names and titles should be transliterated. The list of references should look as follows:
