

Faculty of Philology

In Search of Brave New Research

Undergraduate and Postgraduate Symposium on Literary and Cultural Studies

March 21, 2024

The Centre for Comparative Literary Studies at Vilnius University aims to create a friendly space for undergraduate and graduate (in the last three years) students to share their ideas on various topics related to literary and cultural studies.

PANELS

- ✦ Work in progress. We invite students currently working on their BA thesis to present their research. Format: 10-15 min. oral presentation.
- ✦ Rethinking my research. We invite recently graduated students to share their BA thesis and/or rethink them from different perspectives. Format: 10-15 min. oral presentation.
- ✦ Thinking out loud. Thinking about a catchy topic, but not sure what to do with it yet? Let's talk! We invite undergraduate students to share their ideas on a topic that they are interested in. Format: 5-7 min. 'blurb'.

TOPICS

- ✦ World Literature
- ✦ Lithuanian Literature
- ✦ Comparative Literary and Cultural Studies
- ✦ Literary and Gender Studies
- ✦ Literary and Media Studies

Abstract length: for the panels Work in progress and Rethinking my research 150 words max. For the panel Thinking out loud a blurb of 50 words max.

Your submission should also include name, surname, study status (undergraduate or graduate (when)) and study program.

Send the abstract to:

llsc.vu@gmail.com

Symposium will be held only in English, but research objects and topics can come from different languages!

Deadline for abstract submission: 12/02/2024